

MILLBROOK HUNT MEET.

Members Entertain the Farmers in the Hunting District.

Special to The New York Times.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Aug. 30.—The farmers of Millbrook, over whose lands the members of the Millbrook Hunt Club run to hounds, were guests to-day at the annual meet of the club. The meet was held at the old Washington Hollow Fair Grounds. It was a democratic gathering, and the New York society folk who have homes at Millbrook were careful to see that their guests had a good time. In the morning there was a ball game between Millbrook and Pine Plains, in which the former won the game by the score of 2 to 0. At noon a clambake was served, and in the afternoon the running and steeplechase races were held. The summaries:

First Race.—Galloway Handicap.—Won by Jack Cade, owned by Rufus C. Finch; Mollie Gibson, owned by Lawrence B. Smith, second.

Second Race—Millbrook Hunt Steeplechase Handicap.—Won by Pall Mall, owned by Leonard Jacob; Web Carter, owned by Greentree Stable, second; Duke of Duluth, owned by James Park, third.

Third Race—Washington Hollow Handicap.—Won by Fred Essen, owned by J. E. Davis; Pilot II., owned by L. T. Martin, second.

Fifth Race—Handicap.—Won by Golden, owned by J. E. Davis; Pretty Michael, owned by B. B. Lewis, second; Adventuress, owned by L. Jacob, third.
